

WORLD BOOK DAY

Thursday 2nd March 2023

We are excited to be taking part in World Book Day on 2nd March 2023. As you already know, reading for pleasure and developing a love of reading is key for future success in so many areas and is always top of our list of priorities here at Trevisker.

To celebrate World Book Day and support us further in this, we will be asking children to:

- Dress up as a book character of their choice
- Design a book cover of one of their favourite books (in school)
- Enter our 'Caught Reading' / Reading in unusual places competition – Can all photos be sent in or emailed to trevisker@kernowlearning.co.uk by Thursday 2nd March, ready for prizes in assembly on Friday
- Buy a book at the book sale during the afternoon, using their voucher (these will be supplied / kept in school).

To support you in this, we do have some fancy dress outfits in school which will be on sale on Monday 27th March at 3.15pm for a small donation to FOTS.

Please see over the page for a letter from Padstow Bookseller who will be joining us on the day.

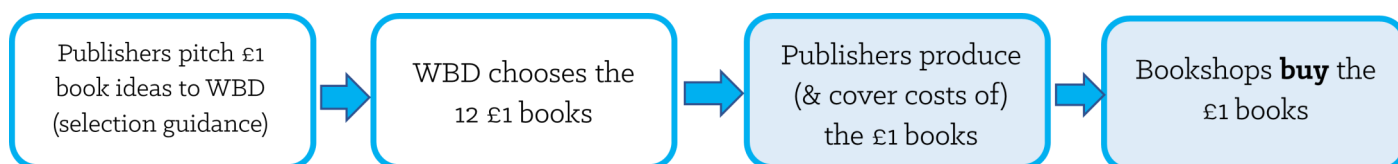

We are sure you agree this is always an exciting and worthwhile event to help promote reading across the school and at home. Thank you for your support!

Kind regards – Collene Thorpe

World Book Day changes lives through a love of books and shared reading. Our mission is to promote reading for pleasure, offering every child and young person the opportunity to have a book of their own.

Reading for pleasure is the single biggest indicator of a child's future success – more than their family circumstances, their parents' educational background or their income. We want to see more children, particularly those from disadvantaged backgrounds, with a life-long habit of reading for pleasure and the improved life chances this brings them.

World Book Day offers every child and young person the opportunity to have a book of their own. The £1 tokens and £1 books give all children the chance to experience choosing and owning a book – for free.

The World Book Day books are a gift to children from booksellers and publishers.

Please bring your World Book Day voucher to exchange for a book on Thursday 2nd March after school.

See you there!
